Proclamation by President Roberts.

Lunlow Street Jan., New York Ciri, June 12, 1993.

To the Fenum Batherhood and Instance of America:

Brouters and notice of Irish independence and universal freedom. The cheese which arose from the Irish soldlers at Limestone Ritige, as the Engish foe went if eleg before their avenging steel, has found a responsive echo in every Irish heart, and made us one in love, purpose and resolve. We see, alter agos of your oppression, the unconquerable deare for Irish independence bive forth ancw, and as It sweep along the citles and prairies of this vast continent it grathers which its magic influence for Irish independence bive forth ancw, and as It sweep along the citles and prairies of this vast continent it grathers which its magic influence for public and without any reason for It, I wrote involuntarily at the lotten, and twee five millions of Irish hearts, and twice of despotsins. Arise, the major country men, nerve yourselves for the struggles on nobly commenced. Cost saide every commenced. Cost saide every commenced. Cost saide every commenced. Cost saide every commenced contynens. Be true to libraty, your country and your God; and your millions of trish hearts, and twice five millions of sixtery, will soon be the garden of freedom.

Stand firm to the cause; be not disamyed by the obstacles you meet; you must surgonist them. Let cowardice and ignorance desert and down on yer knees now, for there are a minute between us and purgatory!"

"Be also, Pat," said the other, as he coolly continued to punch with his pole; "he also, now; what's the use of prayir' when a felier can tech bottom with a pole."

Mike he a pretty good specimen of a large class of Christians, who prefer to omit prayer as long as they can "tech bottom." Trans hundred seres of good band, thing within three miles of Coristh, Miss., were sold for days since at saction, bring a tracted as also for thirty-five costs on sero.

The Doyle Murder.

On Sunday last a citizen was murdered on the public highway, within three miles of Titusville, road, and in the vicinity of several farm whose occupants were at home. The brief in vestigation made by the acting-Coroner showed most conclusively that it was a premeditated and deliberate crime; that the murderer lay in whit of concealment so near athand that the wadding the gun was carried into the road. The mobut a sufficient clew was presented in the cir cumstances connected with the affair to give a substantial foothold for an intelligent official investigation.

It seems, however, that with the buriat of Doyle, all public interest in the tragedy has subsided and its mystery is likely to remain unexplained. Coroner, whose official duties were ended with the discharge of his jury. It is not the province of our police, whose Jurisdiction does not extend beyond the city limits. But we are confident that any sharp-witted detective could unravel the thread of this mystery and track out the offender. That he should be permitted to move about with impunity from arrest and conviction while the blood of his innocent victim still marks the scene of his immon tion, is a standing reproach to those whose duty the criminal-not only to avenge the memory of an innocent man, but the community who have been outraged and the law which he has violated by the commission of the blackest of crimes.

BURGLARY AND RODDERY .- About half pretwo o'clock yesterday morning, the house of R. D. Fletcher, opposite the Catholic Church, was ntered by hurglars. Mrs. Fletcher, who was sleeping on the first floor with her children, in a room adjourning the parlor, heard a noise in the hall and being apprehensive that everything was not all right, passed into the parker, where a light was kept burnind. The thought struck her that it might be Mr. Fletcher, coming down stairs, and she called him by name. The m ent she stepped into the hall she met a strange man, face to face. Mrs. P. screamed and ran up the lack stairs, and the burglar, a little startle at the unexpected encounter exclaimed "Oh, my God I" and made for the parlor whidow and impoed out. Icaving behing on the floor, a port which he had taken from unother about ment. Meanwhile the whole house had used, but too late to follow or capture the rab side the house, one of them bearing the impres of a maked foot of uncomfortable dimen slons. Nothing has been missed from the hous The parior window such had been left unfasten ed, by means of which the burglu entered.

A demonstration was also made upon the 190 of E. H. Chase, next adjoining. The prowlers were heard outside, but did not success in effecting an endrance.

The dwelling of A. J. Davidson, apposite the Empire House, was entered about the same hour turning the door key with some instrument outside. The house was thoroughly ransacked, and the packets and drawers rife About $175 in money and a silver watch valued at $45 were taken. It is supposed that obloroform was administered to some of the inmates as none of them were disturbed by the visitation, and those who slept in the lower apartments ex perienced the usual subsequent efforts of lubaling A SINGULAR SUPERSTITION.—A novel coplaint was made before Mayor Augici, yesterday, on the part of the parents of the little girl who was drowned in the mill race on Wednesday a They bring a charge of abduction against a man and his wife of the same national ity It appears that about a fortnight since the defendants moved into a new house. They have a superstition, in common with others of their people, that whoever first occupies a new dwelling for a period of two hours, will meet with a shocking and untintely death, to relieve themselves of this dire intality, they decoyed the little girl (deceased) and a younge sister into the house, and detained them the several hours by locking them in a room. Wed nesday the class child fell into the mill race, and was drawn into the wheel, horribly mutilated and killed. The Mayor dismissed the complaint for want of proper jurisdiction, but we learn that a prescention will be enteredagainst the parterous the conclusion may seem to those who do not share in the superstition that the death was the consequence of the abduction, it is no mat ter of surprise that the hereaved parents should feel them rence. In the hearts and purposes of those who committed the act, the child was virtually doomed to a horrible and unlimely end.

ACCIDENT FROM TORPEDO EXPLOSION. - A SC rious accident resulted at Tarr farm a few days since from the explosion of one of Col. Roberts torpedoes in a well. The torpedo was sund about 100 feet in the well, where it become fast; while an effort was being made to drive it down an explosion occurred with very serious effect The muchinery at the top of the well was demol earth for a space of eight or to feet in diameter was thrown up with the force of volcanic cruption. The Pennsylvania Battle Flags. The flags carried by the Feating lyngha recliments in the late war are to be formally presented to the State authorities on the 4th of July. The Harrisburg Triegraph says there are two bundred and nine flags and standards belonging to the infantry, cavalry and artillery regiments. those colors are literally torn with bullet-holes and smeared with blood. Among the number is the flag of the 70d regiment, which bears this in-

It was torn from the flag staff by cotor Sergeant Charles Wendler, of Company G, at Missionary Ridge, Nov. 29, 1863, and handed Capt. Kennedy when about to be enpaired." Capt. K. held the flag for many months, con cealed on his person, as he was a prisoner at Lib-by. It is "tattered and torn" to the utmost, it s faded in color, and has the appearance of having been roughly handled.

Many of the flags are so perforated by bullets that their inscriptions of battles in which they were borne cannot be perused. When a regiment participated, and distinguished itself in the field, the name of the battle was inscribed on the tolds of the flag. As these flags were borne in subsequent battles, they were torn by shell and perforated by bullets, so as now to reader it in ossible to decipher their inscriptions.

Every flag contained in this collection, ever a record, bears the unmistakable dence of having been borne in battle by brave men, of having floated above fields of carrig and death, where true men contended with tra tilcides for the existence of the best and purest Government ever guaranteed to man. It was in the broad glare of day, on a frequented of the flags presented by the Governor, it is calculated that some sixty are yet in the hands of members of regiments. Arrangements will be made to get these standards in the possession of the State. Others of these inlasing flags were captured by the robels. The following is a not ble instance of one of the captures:

The flag of the Linth P V u.s. planted by its color bearer, Corporat Guilins, of Union county, Fennsylvania, and the regiment afficial around it in five distinct charges. At last, being overpowered, it was compelled to fall back. The color Corporat, though wounded, still held to the flag turning occasionally and waving it definitely at the rebets as he reducted. But a robed builter pierced his heat, he fell dent, still convulsively clasping the flag to life thoson. It was ston from his dead body by a rebel officer and presented by bint to Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, He (Gov. Vance) piecented it to deff. Davis, and it was captured among the beggage of that ward quished chiefann. COWAN AND BUCKALOW .- A bill is before Con gress designating League Island a great mayal stution for hon-clad vessels. It has passed the House, and the Philadelphia Bulletin complineuts Messes, Kelley, O'Neil, Myers, Theyer and Randall upon the ability of their arguments and the success of their cilorts. Of its passage in he Senate the Hulletin expresses some doubt, as the measure will stand principally upon its own merits. The Bulletin truly remarks "that neither Mr. Cowan nor Buckalew takes the slightest inlerest in the prosperity of the State or of its me ropolist, and if they did take any, they are utlerly without influence. Both are so absorbed in the work of getting traitors back into Congress and turning true men out of office, that they can give no time or labor to a great and indispensa national enterprise, which would especially benefit the State of Pennsylvania."

Shame on these faithless representatives?

A COSTESTED SEIZURE -An exciting contro versy is reported to have occurred between the Han. C. V. Culver and the Deputy Sheriff of Venaugo county, at Rouseville, on Wednesday evening. The officer selzed a locomotive belonging to the Reno and Pithole Railroad at Planter, intending to run it over to Rouseville. and deposit it upon the Kersey Oil and Mining Company horse-tailroad truck. Mr. Culver was Reno on a locomotive, accompanied by accerd amployees, to dispute the spizare. He arrived at Rouseville in advance of the Sheriff, and demouded possession of the company's property. The officer refused to comply, and Mr. Culver is reported to have ordered his men to draw revolvers and take forcible possession. Milder under the militar law, by which means the State coursels prevailed, however, and the Deputy was will secure an army of magnificent proportions finally allowed to retain peageable possession of the locomotive, under protest. We relate the occurrence as reported to us by a gentleman who same from Rouseville yesterday morning.

THE STRAWBERRY SEASON is just opening and the luselous finit will soon be tempting the currency out of our pockets. The question will nise how to get the best berries and in the freshest condition. Mr. John Dodge, of Harbon and informed us that he had made arrangements to ship to Thomas Goodwin and P. H. Terhum & Co, his stock of the Wilson strawberry this eason, and that of the Messrs, Leet, of same dace. Mr. Dodge has an acre in bearing now, that was planted a year ago, and has planted two and half scree the past spring. His neighbors C. & A. Leet, have three acres in hearing and have made large plantings this year. Mr. Dodge will pick fruit in and ship it to Titusville by the seven a. to, ex press, which will bring it here at eleven a, m By this plan we should get berries in fine order Through the kindness of Mr. Thos, Goodwin we ampled a specimen lot of berries from Mr. Dodge's grounds yesterday, and cheerfully acknowledge that they were fully equal in flavor
